CIT™ with THD

CIT™ is a fantastic tool that has multiple uses and can tighten baseline configuration control down to a single bit. It can also be used with surgical precision on an entire system or single file. The CIT™ tool produces a database of cryptographic hash values for every file it is directed to manage. THD answers the question, "How do you find a chameleon Trojan horse attack when there are no contents to scan?" As always, CyberSoft includes one year of maintenance and support via Internet with the purchase of CIT™ and THD. The product part numbers are listed in parentheses.
